

David Joseph Establishes Switzerland Office

On June 7, 2010, The David Joseph Company (DJJ) announced the opening of an international office in Switzerland. The new office represents another step in DJJ's strategy to expand its global presence while striving to become closer to its worldwide customers.

The Switzerland office is DJJ's platform to better serve current and potential European customers, focusing on ferrous and ferro-alloy scrap, as well as exploring other opportunities to provide DJJ's wide array of services.

The office is staffed by Mr. Brad Ford. Mr. Ford joined DJJ in 2001, and served as a brokerage representative in the Pittsburgh and Philadelphia trading offices prior to being promoted to Pittsburgh District Manager in 2006.

The new DJJ Switzerland office is located at:

Nucor Trading SA
Avenue Rosseau 7
CH - 2000 Neuchâtel
Switzerland

The phone number is +41 32 731 81 65 and the fax number is +41 32 710 04 88.

The David J. Joseph Company is a subsidiary of Nucor (NYSE: NUE). Founded in 1885, The David Joseph Company is one of the largest scrap brokers/processors in the United States. DJJ employs over 2,000 and is headquartered in Cincinnati, Ohio.
